

‘TRAVEL WITH CAMBRIDGE’ PRIZE DRAW

A. TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR PREPARATION CENTRES

I. ORGANIZER OF THE PRIZE DRAW

This prize draw is organized by Fundación UCLES, holder of Tax ID (NIF) number G8I993792, with its registered office at C/ José Abascal 56, 1º - 28003 Madrid (Spain), recorded at the Foundations Register under number 4I2EDU (hereinafter ‘Cambridge’ or the ‘Organizer’).

2. AIM

These terms and conditions are established by the Organizer as the rules governing participation in the prize draw and the award of the prizes.

3. HOW THE PRIZE DRAW WORKS

3.1. Entering the prize draw

To enter the prize draw, you must:

- ✓ Be a Preparation Centre (hereinafter ‘Preparation Centre’) for the official Cambridge examinations.
- ✓ Complete the form to be found at the travelwithcambridge.org website, filling out all parts necessary to enter the prize draw.
- ✓ Having completed the form, to have presented a minimum of 15 candidates for the B2 and CI examinations during the time period for participation in this prize draw.

Only one entry per participant.

3.2. Selecting the winner of the prize draw

A total of 8 winners (between candidates and employees from the preparation centre) shall be selected from among the Preparation Centres that have taken part and that meet the requirements set forth in the previous clause.

The said winners shall be distributed as follows:

- 2 winners passing their B2 certificate with 1 companion each.
- 2 employees, one from the Preparation Centre attended by each B2 winner.
- 2 winners passing their CI certificate with 1 companion each.
- 2 employees, one from the Preparation Centre attended by each CI winner.

In total, 12 trips to Cambridge will be given away: 4 for candidates, 4 for the candidate’s companions and 4 for preparation centre employees.

Winners are selected at random from among all participants who meet the requirements laid down in these terms and conditions.

In order to ensure the impartiality of the prize draw, winners are selected using a random selection application.

4. CALENDAR

4.1. Publication of the launch of the prize draw

On 1 January 2024 the Organizer shall publish the terms and conditions of the prize draw on the travelwithcambridge.org website in PDF format, where they will remain available until 31 July 2024, and there will be a link to the said terms and conditions on the registration form for the prize draw.

4.2. Time limits for taking part

Entries open at 10:00 hours (Spanish peninsular time) on 1 January 2024, and close at 21:00 hours (Spanish peninsular time) on 31 July 2024. Any entries received before the time limit starts or after the time limit ends for the prize draw shall be void.

The draw will be held in Autumn 2024, to ensure that the results for all candidates have been received.

4.3. Notification of the winners

Once the draw has been held, the Organizer shall contact the preparation centre with which the winners took their exam using the contact details supplied in the registration form.

5. PRIZES

The prize is as follows:

- Return air tickets to travel to Cambridge, Thursday to Sunday, departing from Madrid or Barcelona or Portugal. The city the flights depart from may be subject to change at the choice of the winners and their place of residence.
- Transfers between London Stansted Airport and Cambridge.
- Accommodation for 3 nights in Cambridge, including breakfast.
- Guided tours around the places of interest in the city.

Prizes may only be enjoyed between March and May 2025.

Prizes are non-transferable, and may not be exchanged for cash or for other prizes.

6. PARTICIPATION REQUIREMENTS

Participants in the prize draw must meet the following requirements:

- They must be of legal age.
- They must be resident in Spain or Portugal.
- They may not be an employee of the Organizer or directly involved in the operation of the prize draw through any business providing services to the Organizer.
- They may not be a family member (up to the first degree of consanguinity or affinity) of any of the persons excluded from taking part in the prize draw under the previous section.

- They must hold an ID card or equivalent document through which their identity and age can be verified.
- They must accept in full and without reservations these terms and conditions.

7. PERSONAL DATA

Pursuant to the regulations governing data-protection, participants are hereby informed that any and all data supplied in connection with the prize draw shall be processed by the Organizer with the aim of administering the prize draw, in accordance with the provisions of these terms and conditions. The legal basis underlying the said data-processing is the need to implement the provisions of these terms and conditions.

Likewise, in the event the name of the winner is published through any other medium available to the Organizer, the consent of the winner shall be sought for the said publication. The legal basis underlying this use is the consent of the winner.

Participants' data shall be processed for the duration of the prize draw. Furthermore, the data of the winners shall be processed for the duration of the prize draw and shall subsequently be stored for the time period defined by law in order to attend to any possible liabilities deriving from the data-processing.

The Organizer hereby informs you that in the event you have ticked the corresponding box on the registration form, your personal data shall be processed by the Organizer and by any other entities forming part of the Cambridge Group for the purpose of sending you commercial communications via e-mail concerning services, promotions, innovations, or events relating to the Cambridge Group that may be of interest in connection with the education sector.

The tool to be used for the sending of e-mail communications shall include links and tiny transparent images associated with your e-mail address. Therefore, when one of these images or links contained in the e-mail is downloaded or followed, the Organizer can determine, for statistical purposes, whether the e-mail has been opened or if any of the links inside the e-mail has been followed. You can stop these features by configuring your e-mail manager or program to block the automated downloading of images, or by not following the links contained in the e-mails you will receive. Each communication will offer you the option to object to the receipt of this kind of information via the corresponding contact method in order to unsubscribe. The legal basis underlying this data-processing is the consent granted by the participant. Your data shall be processed for these purposes indefinitely until such time as you object or request the deletion of your data.

Participants may exercise their rights to data-portability or to view, correct, delete, object, or restrict their data before the Organizer by way of a written communication, dated and signed, sent to the corresponding address indicated at point I of these terms and conditions, with proof of their identity, stating the nature of their request, and identifying themselves as a participant in this prize draw by way of the personal data supplied in their entry. Likewise, participants may seek redress before the Spanish Data Protection Regulator (www.aepd.es) in the event they consider there has been an infringement of their right to have their personal data protected.

8. LIABILITY OF THE ORGANIZER

Cambridge is the sole organizer of the prize draw.

The Organizer takes no responsibility for entries that fail to meet the requirements of these terms and conditions, or for any possible claims relating to the enjoyment of the prize or the expectations that may have been generated about the prize, or for any liabilities or losses deriving from any conditions or circumstances already notified or covered by these terms and conditions. Likewise, the Organizer shall not be liable in the event that for reasons of force majeure or an act of God it is not possible to fulfil the dates or the provisions established in these terms and conditions.

The Organizer reserves the right to prolong, alter, cut short, or cancel the prize draw in the event of force majeure or an act of God making it impossible to continue with the said prize draw in accordance with the provisions of these terms and conditions. Under no circumstances shall the Organizer be found to be liable in the event the prize draw has to be postponed, altered, cut short, or cancelled where circumstances so require, and provided that the rights acquired by the participants have not been prejudiced.

The Organizer shall not accept any liability for any disconformity by the participants with the provisions of these terms and conditions.

The decisions of the Organizer shall be binding.

9. TAXES

The prizes awarded under this prize draw shall be subject to the corresponding Personal Income Tax withholdings or deductions at source chargeable to the Organizer, which undertakes to supply, at the pertinent time and where necessary, the corresponding certificate for the Personal Income Tax withholding or deduction made. The prizes, which are to be paid in kind, shall be subject to a Deduction at Source for Personal Income Tax, which shall be calculated by applying a 19% rate on the result of increasing the acquisition value or cost for the payer by 20%. Where increasing the acquisition value of the prize or the cost of the prize for the payer by 20% does not result in the prize being worth more than 300 euros, the prize shall not be subject to a deduction at source. The Personal Income Tax deduction at source shall be borne and paid on account by the Organizer, and must be included in the Personal Income Tax withholdings and deductions at source return by way of form III.
